

Procedure for Registering with CPCB

The compostable products can be tested in the CIPET or any other CPCB recognized Government laboratory having adequate testing facilities for this purpose. The test shall be carried out as per Indian Standard IS/ISO-17088, as amended time to time.

Documents to be attached with the Application Form:

A. Manufacturer

1. Duly filled Form-A.
2. Registration Certificate from concerned SPCB/PCC, as per Rule '13(2)' of PWM Rules, 2018.
3. The valid consents to operate under Air and Water Acts (no acknowledgement of submission of consent applications), as per Rule '13(5)' of PWM Rules, 2018.
4. Flow diagrams of manufacturing process.
5. Detail of raw material used in the process as well as their source of procurement to be provided. Necessary documents regarding input material to be provided in case the raw material is imported.
6. For issuing Provisional Certificate, interim test report of the sample The Date of obtaining Consent to Operate under Air and Water Act issued by concern SPCB/PCC should be before the date of initiation of Test as per IS/ISO:17088 from CIPET or any other CPCB recognized Government laboratory having adequate testing facilities.
7. Details of by-products, end products and pollution control measures.
8. Undertaking letter on Rs100/- Stamp paper.
=====
9. For issuing Final Certificate, complete test report of the sample, including seed germination and heavy metal analysis test (after 180 days), from CIPET or any other CPCB recognized Government laboratory .

For more information: Please contact:

Advance Bio Material Co. Pvt. Ltd

525, Avior, Nirmal Galaxy, LBS Road, Mulund-West, Mumbai-400080

Sneha-9372469514-sales3@advancebioplast.com / Rajesh-9137907716-sales2@advancebioplast.com

Disclaimer: Above information is just to guidance. Advance Bio Material Company does not take any responsibility for any consequences. Please refer CPCB website before applying for registration.